ABOUT LEGAL MARRIAGE IN COSTA RICA

The marriage in Costa Rica is recognized in the U.S.A, United Kingdom and Canada, and it's legal any place of the world.

The registration process of a civil marriage in Costa Rica takes approximately six weeks after your wedding day. Then we will mail you the definite official marriage certificate issued by Costa Rican Civil Registry Office and translated by us.

We arrange our legal marriage through a Senior Partner (Lic. Federico Arias Chacón / Pacific Law & Consulting Firm) their services include the performing of the ceremony, the handling of the legal documentation you will need, the registration of the documents at the Costa Rican Civil Registry Office, and the translation and mailing of the final marriage certificate.

GETTING MARRIED IN COSTA RICA REQUIREMENTS

1. Current passport for groom, bride and witnesses (obligatory copies needed before hand)
2. Two witnesses (either family or friends) at the ceremony. In case you don't have any witnesses please confirm and we (the attorney's firm) will provide them for you without any additional cost)
3. Fill out a wedding information questionnaire (obligatory/needed before hand)

It is not necessary to stay in Costa Rica for any period of time before getting married. The documents you bring here do not need to be translated into Spanish, and you don't need to bring the originals.

People think that getting married in Costa Rica is a complicated matter but we can perform a wedding with just the passport copies and the wedding questionnaire, and we take care of the rest.
